FOOTBALL STINGERS TO HOST MCGILL

One of Canadian university football's best rivalries will continue this Saturday afternoon (October 10) at the Loyola Campus of Concordia University when the hometown Stingers host the McGill Redmen. Kick off time is 1 p.m..

Both teams are tied for third place in the Ontario - Quebec Intercollegiate Football Conference (O-QIFC) with 2-2 records. Front-running Bishop's stretched its unblemished mark to 4-0 last Saturday with a 38-12 triumph over the Stingers in Lennoxville. Queen's is in second place at 3-1.

Concordia and McGill last met September 19 at Molson Stadium in the Shaughnessy Cup Shrine Bowl with the Redmen winning the contest 31-20.

MEN'S HOCKEY CLUB HIT THE ROAD; SOCCER ACTION

The 1987-88 edition of the Concordia men's varsity Stingers take to the road for non-conference games in Rhode Island and Massachusetts. On Saturday (October 10) they'll visit Providence College followed up a day later with a contest at Lowell University.

Head coach Paul Arsenault heads into his 24th season behind the bench feeling quite optimistic. In an exhibition game versus University of Ottawa last week the Stingers won 13-4.

Meanwhile, in varsity soccer action, Concordia hosted a women's tournament last weekend. In the championship final McGill blanked the Stingers 5-0. The men's team hosts Sherbrooke Friday (October 9) at the Loyola Field at 4 p.m.
